

Transitional Year Residency Program

FAST FACTS

1-Year ACGME-Accredited Program

15 residents per year

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Sponsored by the General Surgery Residency Program and closely affiliated with the Internal Medicine Residency Program
- Six positions reserved for the Anesthesia Residency Program, five positions reserved for the Neurology Residency Program, four positions recruited for the Transitional Year Residency Program
- Minimum of 24 weeks of experience in fundamental clinical skills with additional time customized to the resident's future program needs or area of interest
- Required ambulatory experience at a variety of primary care clinics within the Nuvance Health System
- Large number of elective options
- Unique patient panel at all ambulatory locations
- Robust didactic curriculum series
- Level II Trauma Center
- Research opportunities

Transitional Year – PGY1

During the transitional year, residents will:

- Complete two months in the general surgery and internal medicine inpatient units, each serving as members of the inpatient team alongside internal medicine and surgical residents.
- Complete one month in the intensive care unit gaining invaluable education experience alongside residents from the majority of the other residency programs, including obstetrics and gynecology, family medicine, internal medicine, general surgery and anesthesia.
- Complete at least one month each in emergency medicine, ambulatory care and family medicine.
- Complete up to two months of electives. A wide range of elective options are available, including, but not limited to, anesthesiology, radiology, general surgery sub-specialties, obstetrics and gynecology, neurology, pulmonary medicine and any additional rotation agreed upon with the program director.

STIPEND

- PGY-1: $67,500
- Relocation allowance (during first year)
- Annual educational stipend

BENEFITS

- Full benefits package, including medical/prescription, dental and vision
- Flexible spending accounts (FSAs)
- Basic life and accidental death and dismemberment (AD&D) insurance
- Short- and long-term disability
- 3 lab coats are provided first year of residency
- 20 days of paid time off (PTO) per academic year
- Employee assistance program (EAP)
- Employee discount program

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

- Annual resident and family welcome party
- Wellness initiatives for work-life balance
- End-of-year recognition banquet
- Quarterly activities and additional social events

WORK HOURS/CALL

- No more than 80 hours per week
- No more than 24 consecutive hours of clinical activity
- At least 14 hours off after 24 hours of in-house call
- A minimum of one day off out of seven